

STORYLINE ONLINE PRESENTS:

"HARRY THE DIRTY DOG"

By Gene Zion, Illustrated by Margaret Bloy Graham

Watch online video of actor Betty White
reading this story at <http://www.storylineonline.net>

Harry is a white dog with black spots who loves everything...except baths. So one day before bath time, Harry runs away. He plays outside all day long, digging and sliding in everything from garden soil to pavement tar. By the time he returns home, Harry is so dirty he looks like a black dog with white spots. His family doesn't even recognize him!

RELATED ACTIVITIES

- Retell this story in your own words.
- Discuss and then tell or write about what you enjoyed most about this book.
- Explain why Harry buried the scrubbing brush in the backyard. Tell how Harry got so dirty.
- Discuss and then tell or write about the strange dog in the backyard.

- After you have worked with a dog to learn the trick, write a review of how it went. Did the dog learn the trick? Do you need to reteach the lesson? What would you do differently the next time?
- Make a list of what you enjoyed most about these websites. Share your list with an adult.
- Make a list of facts or information that you still would like to learn. Discuss this list with an adult and make a plan of how and where you will do further research to find what you need. Continue your research until you find the answers.

ABOUT THE READER

Although best known as the crafty Sue Ann Nivens on the classic sitcom Mary Tyler Moore and the ditzy Rose Nylund on The Golden Girls, Betty White had been in television for a long, long time before those two shows, having had her own series, Life with Elizabeth in 1952. Betty has been inducted into the Television Hall of Fame and is known for her tireless efforts on behalf of animals.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Gene Zion was born in 1913. He attended the New School of Social Research and the Pratt Institute. Gene Zion is best known for his creation of the rascally dog, Harry, about whom he wrote several favorite stories. Gene Zion and Margaret Bloy Graham collaborated on four books about Harry: Harry the Dirty Dog, Harry by the Sea, Harry and the Lady Next Door, and No Roses for Harry. These books are noted for their child's eye view of the world, where things that are important to the very young are depicted, and youngsters learn that things can work out when they 'sit' plants, or try to save the only 'summer' snowman. He died in 1975.

Some Other Books BY Gene Zion:

- "No Roses for Harry!"
- "Harry and the Lady Next Door"
- "Harry by the Sea"
- "All Falling Down"
- "The Summer Snowman"
- "The Sugar Mouse Cake"
- "Dear Garbage Man"
- "Really Spring"
- "The Plant Sitter"

ABOUT THE ILLUSTRATOR

Margaret Bloy Graham was born in Toronto, Ontario. She graduated from the University of Toronto and worked as a draftsman artist before beginning to illustrate books in the 1940s. In 1951 she illustrated her first children's book All Falling Down, written by her frequent collaborator, Gene Zion. The book was a Caldecott Honor Book, and the following year she received another Caldecott Honor for The Storm Book, written by Charlotte Zolotow. Throughout her long career she has illustrated and written many books, and is best known for her and Gene Zion's 'Harry' series. These books relate the adventures of Harry the dog, and are noted for their entertaining stories that come alive through her illustrations which add life to the stories, and capture a child's sense of humor.
